

the great Frenchmen of all time if

Half—Forgotten Days

Twenty Years Ago

Lee Wing, for fourteen years a resident of this city and proprietor of the Hing Lee Laundry, Pearl St., will sail August 24 from Vancouver, together with a party of Chinese from Detroit and Chicago, for Shanghai, China, where he will remain for the next six months. Mr. Wing intends to spend part of his time with his mother in Canton.

• • • • •

The slogan appearing at the bottom of letters going out of Ypsilanti for the next week will carry out the information that Ypsilanti has the third oldest self-government in the world.